

Approved

Derry Heritage Commission

Meeting Minutes – February 7, 2022

Present: Karen Blandford-Anderson (Chairperson), TJ Cullinane, Paul Lindemann,

Visitors: Mark Mastromarino and Kaleigh Shaunessy Pare

Absent: Marc Wiseman, and Catherine Baumann.

Museum Update

Discussion with Kaleigh –

- Museum update
 - Survey's need to be back to Kaleigh by EOD Wednesday, February 9, 2022.
 - Once she gets the surveys, a storyline to focus on the exhibits, keep the "Transportation" theme of the.
 - 100 responses collected is the goal!
 - Help with the writing and will need work on the editing.
 - Outline by next meeting (April).
- Ongoing
 - Calendar of events
 - Wednesday – Open Hours
 - Online blog (Square Space)
 - TJ will provide some from his files – start sending items to Kaleigh.
 - Jr. Historian Projects – write a post about their project.
 - Permission for photos from parents
 - Curators Corner
 - Potentially someone to commemorate "Black History Month"
 - Municipal Center Display Cases
 - New acquisitions

Paul will get us set-up the Google Suite with folders for each of us.

Themes for future – Kaleigh will compile it for us and load to GoogleDrive once Paul sets it up.

Approved

TJ Cullinane 7 weeks out for Wednesday night.

Civil War Book - small books stores – 2nd edition – waiting on hard cover version for the 2nd edition.

Sue & Erin are approved to open and close the museum in the absence of TJ Cullinane with advance notice to the commission.

Update on Ongoing Projects – Paul Lindemann

1. Julie Huss wrote an article about the Jr. Historians
2. Calling Ryan at Manchester Union Leader and Chris Paul.
3. Coloring Book – Arcadia publishing

Looking Frost Festival – do we want to participate? TJ will open the Museum from noon to 3:00pm on Saturday, February 19, 2022.

Goal of acting as more historic.

Rick can we get a subscription to newspapers.com – look into it and check with the library.

Respectfully submitted:

Karen Blandford-Anderson

Chairperson, Derry Heritage Commission