PRESS RELEASE

On July 24, 2014 at 11:57 AM the Derry Police Department received a report of a possible burglary on English Range Road. The caller stated that a pickup truck with a male and female occupants, not known to the neighborhood parked at a vacant home. The caller stated that the woman pried open a door to the residence and they entered. The two were observed removing air conditioners and other items from the home and loading them into the truck.

Responding officers located the 1999 GMC pickup truck as it was backing out of the driveway of the victim residence. They detained the male driver and a woman who was walking out of the driveway. The truck contained air conditioners and other items in plain view of the officers. After brief investigation the officers arrested
