The undersigned, being parent or legal guardian of the child requesting admittance does hereby affirm that the applicant is in good health and suffers no illness, disability, or condition that requires the taking of medication on a regular basis unless the condition is disclosed and approved. Furthermore, the undersigned has no knowledge of any reason the applicant cannot participate in vigorous activity. The undersigned hereby expressly agrees to be responsible for any medical bills incurred in treatment of any illness or accident. In the event of any such accident or injury, I hereby connect to allow the camp supervisors to procure any medical treatment deemed advisable on behalf of my child without prior consent. No medical insurance is provided by Pinkerton Academy. I understand as a condition of admittance as a camper the undersigned hereby release Pinkerton Academy, Lani Buskey, The Lady Astros Basketball Camp and all other employees of any and all liability due to accident, injury or illness, mental, or physical unless caused by willful act or gross negligence.

These are trying times and we are focused on giving your kids an opportunity to experience the camp atmosphere. The opportunity may come with the risk of COVID-19 exposure. By signing this form you agree and understand there are specific guidelines in place in order to participate in the camp and understand that even if coaches, trainers, and campers follow these guidelines, The Lady Astros Basketball Camp, Lani Buskey and Pinkerton Academy cannot guarantee that the camper will not contract COVID-19 while participating. Please know that by signing your daughter up for The Lady Astros Basketball Camp, you acknowledge there will be no refunds if a COVID-19 case arises during the camp session and we are forced to shut down the camp. If this situation does happen, we have decided we will prorate each camper for lost time for the summer camp in 2022.
